That for unskilled troops the smooth bore is always the most effective weapon, and, in close action, and ird bed for all service within a certain range, is the test arm even for skilled troops. That, while fr skirmishers the rifled arm is necessary, the capacity of the smooth-here to carry not only a ball but also these buck-shot at overy dicharge, makes it more efficient for a large portion of the extgencies of a little, so that it is better for our troups to divide those two isscriptions of arms in preper proportion among them than for ell of them to carry the same decreption of gun. THE REFORM OF THE COMMITTEES OF THE UNDER RELIEF ASLOCIATION The loyal ladies maks a very theering report of their effects of last week for the relief of the camp. They bave taken bold of the matter in a proper spirit and are succeeding admirably. We recoice to see that the ladies of Kentucky ere doing their share ia making the contributions which are loudly called for by the United States Sanitary Commissioners, a call folly endorsed by Presdent Lincoln. There need be no fear in any quarter that the supply of "LANKLES, GOOD TARN sucks, and carro thra drug thru real will be greeter than the necessities of the soldiers in the supplying essentials for the sick soldiers, and The United States Sanitary Commissieners have established unmer as depots for gathering these article, under the neterious fact that the Government cannot formsh them. Let ket and Main, for the storage of all articles dethere, then, be no pauso or wavering on the part of the loyal ladies in the Samaritan work they have undertaken, their country has fallen among thieves, and they have undertaken the noble duty of assisting in the care of the wounds. "jecial Correspondence of the Louisville Journal" CUL. ANDERSON'S REGIMENT. LEBANON, Kr., Nov. 1, 1861.

The regiments here are progressing rapidly. The people are awake to the necessity of main-laining their rights with the sword, and they will do 6t. Cel Anderson is giving the citizens of this and adjoining counties a time opportunity to connect thems lives with his regiment. He is now out with fine speakers, inviting all to go with him-paying them on the ground as soon as they enlist.

The Colonel's regiment is filling very rapidly. No one visits his camp without speaking in the highest terms of the excellent order mainteined therein. The discipline of the men is eduirable. Indeed every order issued is obeyed with the greatest promptness and good will by the men, hecause they love their commander.

The ladies of Marion are particularly kind to Colonel Anderson's regiment. Daily invitations come to him to visit different parts of the county to take dinner. Saturday he visits Bradfards-ville and takes dinner; Tuesday the ladies of Hays ville give to Capt. Fidler's company is fed by the loyal people near Manton, Ky.
